Under the aegis of Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (MMTTC)
Assam University, Silchar

India is one of the fastest-growing economies, and knowledge creation and research are essential to sustaining this growth. The National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 emphasises the importance of multidisciplinary education and flexible degree structures to enhance higher education in the country.

In line with these changes, Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) are encouraged to offer a range of Master's programs and adapt to new guidelines, such as the Learning Outcomes-based Curriculum Framework (LOCF) and the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS).

To support the implementation of NEP 2020, a Faculty Development Program (FDP) is designed to help educators to understand the objectives of the policy and incorporate these insights into curricula and teaching methods, thereby improving the quality of education. The goal is to empower educators and strengthen academic standards by making higher education more flexible, accessible, and responsive to the evolving needs of students.

About MMTTC- Assam University, Silchar

The Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre at Assam University, Silchar (MMTTC-AUS), was established in 2023 under the Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMMNMTT) Scheme. The aim of the Malaviya Mission Teacher Training Centre (MMTTC) is to equip individuals from various fields with the necessary skills to meet the growing challenges of their professions and to instil pride in their professional roles. The primary objective of MMTTC is to address the needs of teachers, principals, research scholars, and non-academic staff by enhancing their knowledge and skills through systematic coursework and methodologies.

Vision

To inspire teachers to enhance institutional effectiveness through the development of their personal, instructional, organisational, and professional growth.

Mission

To promote organisational strategies for faculty development that incentivise professional growth among teachers and enable institutional advancement. Faculty development is expected to lead to improved teaching performance and better learning outcomes for both students and teachers. This initiative fosters new perspectives on the student-teacher relationship and increases commitment to educational scholarship. Developing well-rounded skills is a key aspect of faculty development.

About Indira Gandhi Technological and Medical Sciences University

Indira Gandhi Technological and Medical Sciences University (IGTAMSU), located in Ziro, Arunachal Pradesh, is a multidisciplinary State Private University established under the Indira Gandhi Technological and Medical Sciences University Act, 2012 (Act No. 6 of 2012) and recognised by the University Grants Commission (UGC). The University aims to promote quality higher education, professional training, research, innovation, and skill development, with particular emphasis on the educational needs of the North-Eastern region of India.

The University offers a range of Diploma, Undergraduate, Postgraduate, and Research programmes across diverse disciplines, including Nursing, Naturopathy and Yogic Sciences, Allied Health Sciences, Medical Laboratory Sciences, Physiotherapy, Radiology and Medical Imaging Technology, Optometry, Commerce, Management, and other professional and interdisciplinary fields. It also promotes academic interests in Physical Education, Yoga, and holistic wellness.

Situated in the picturesque Ziro Valley, IGTAMSU seeks to foster an inclusive and multidisciplinary learning environment that encourages academic excellence, practical skills, research, and professional development. The University is committed to strengthening teaching and learning practices in alignment with the objectives of the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, particularly through multidisciplinary education, innovation, and continuous faculty development.

Through its academic programmes and professional initiatives, IGTAMSU aspires to contribute to the development of skilled professionals, competent educators, and responsible citizens who can address emerging societal and professional challenges.
